

Kids know there is nothing quite as fascinating as the ever-changing world of the internet, and nothing more fun than another real live kid. At Smith & Tinker, we're creating connected toys and electronic games that combine the endless expandability of online content with the power of neighborhood social dynamics.

We believe:

- There is nothing on the planet more entertaining than other people
- There is no one more creative than the audience
- There are no limits on entertainment: it's now 360 degrees, 24/7

At Smith & Tinker we are REINVENTING PLAY FOR THE CONNECTED GENERATION.
